Is The Bridge Between Confusion And Clarity." - Nat Turner*

MVP Translations, since 2009

MVP Translations is the perfect solution for all of your interpretation, translation, and transcription needs!

MVP Translations is a professional language translation service provider with over 2,000 active translators providing services to a variety of industries.

We support over 150 language combinations and serve clients across the United States, helping them to break language barriers and bridge cultural differences.

We understand that some of our medical, legal, and business clients have a high volume of cases, files, or claims to handle, and in the midst of all the responsibilities associated with these cases you have a need for proper communication.

Here is where MVP steps in because we understand that interpretations and translations are two of the most important and effective ways to ensure proper communication and to control case expenses. Utilizing our interpretation, translation, and transcription services allow you to focus on your high-priority issues, knowing our agency is servicing and meeting your communication needs.

Let us help you bridge your language barriers!

Our Core Services

MVP Translations is the perfect solution for all of your interpretation, translation, and transcription needs!

Interpretation

Our experienced interpreters are experts in a variety of industries, so you can be sure that your interpretations will be accurate and tailored to your specific needs. We offer over-the-phone and in person interpretations so you can get the help you need, when you need it. With MVP, there's no language barrier!

Translation

Our goal is to be the first choice of companies who need their documents translated into any language, quickly and accurately. You will always receive personalized attention from our project managers, who will work with you every step of the way to ensure that your document meets all of your expectations. With us, quality is not an option but rather a priority!

Transcription

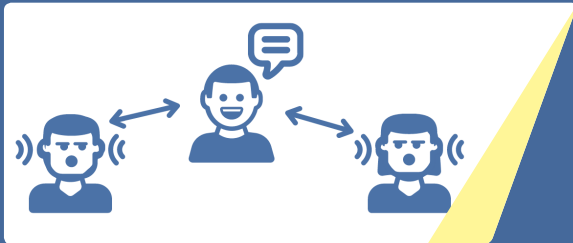

MVP Translations offers professional transcriptions for interviews, meetings, films and more. Whatever your needs, our teams produce transcripts of different types of recordings such as interviews, seminars, meetings or conferences. Our professionals who are experts in their field have a detailed knowledge of the subject being dealt with which allows them to transcribe your audio or video.

More About Our Services

More about our interpreting, translation, and transcription services

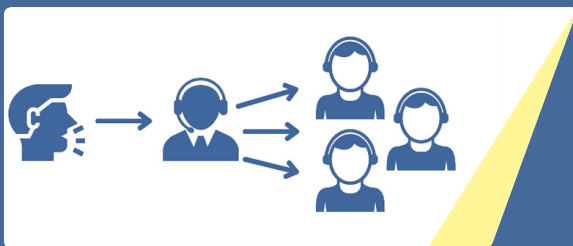

Consecutive interpreting

What the speaker says is interpreted after he has finished speaking.

Liaison interpreting:

With this technique, the speaker's interventions are interpreted at regular intervals.

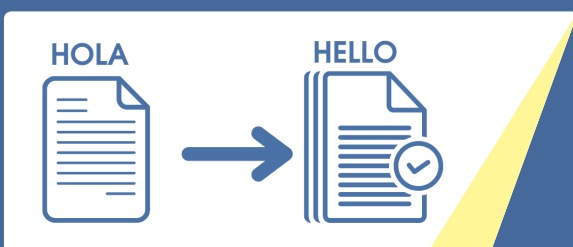

Conference interpreting

Also referred to as simultaneous interpretation. What the speaker says is interpreted a few seconds later.

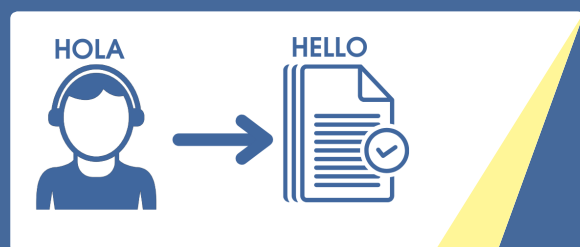

Over-the phone interpreting

Telephone interpreting connects human interpreters via telephone to individuals who wish to speak to each other but do not share a common language.

Translation

Translation is the process of reworking text of one language into text of another language. This is used when you have documents you need to be translated into a different language than the original.

Transcription

Transcription is the process of converting speech from an audio or video recording into text. If you have videos or audio from one language and need it to be converted to text in another, then we transcribe that for you.

Owned and Operated

Milton Palacio, owner of MVP Translations, Inc., is also a certified court interpreter in the state of Florida and has been an interpreter since 2000. He knows the industry inside out. He has experience with legal, medical, conference, immigration and in-person interpretation as well as document translations and audio/video transcriptions.

Milton came to The United States at the age of 15 and didn't know any English. So he also understands what it's like for those who are not English Language Proficient.

He went on to join the US Navy, become a US Citizen and discovered his interest in helping others navigate language struggles.

The launch of MVP Translations, Inc. started as an opportunity to serve those facing struggles with their communication challenges.

Since 2009, we have grown to be a reliable and caring agency that takes pride in providing professional, certified and qualified interpreters and translators to the legal, medical, private, government, and commercial industries.

Our goal is to continue growing, and we thank you for your trust and support.

Contact us today, and let us help you with your language needs!
